

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

Laurel Bayha,

Plaintiff,

v.

Palisades Collections, LLC; and DOES 1-10, inclusive,

Defendants.

Civil Action No.: _____

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, Laurel Bayha, says by way of Complaint against Defendant, Palisades Collections, LLC, as follows:

JURISDICTION

1. This action arises out of Defendants' repeated violations of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1692, et seq. ("FDCPA"), and the invasions of Plaintiff's personal privacy by Defendant and its agents in their illegal efforts to collect a consumer debt.

2. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction over all other claims in this action, as all such claims arise out of the same case or controversy as Defendant's violations of the FDCPA pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367.

3. Venue is proper in the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b), as Defendant transacts business in the State of New Jersey.

PARTIES

4. The Plaintiff, Laurel Bayha ("Plaintiff"), is an adult individual residing in Bedminster, New Jersey, and is a "consumer" as the term is defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(3).

5. Defendant Palisades Collections, LLC (“Palisades”), is a New Jersey business entity with an address of 210 Sylvan Avenue, Englewood Cliffs, New Jersey 07632, operating as a collection agency, and is a “debt collector” as the term is defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(6).

6. Does 1-10 (the “Collectors”) are individual collectors employed by Palisades and whose identities are currently unknown to the Plaintiff. One or more of the Collectors may be joined as parties once their identities are disclosed through discovery.

7. Palisades at all times acted by and through one or more of the Collectors.

ALLEGATIONS APPLICABLE TO ALL COUNTS

A. The Debt

8. A financial obligation (the “Debt”) was allegedly incurred to a creditor (the “Creditor”).

9. The Debt arose from services provided by the Creditor which were primarily for family, personal or household purposes and which meets the definition of a “debt” under 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(5).

10. The Debt was purchased, assigned or transferred to Palisades for collection, or Palisades was employed by the Creditor to collect the Debt.

11. The Defendants attempted to collect the Debt and, as such, engaged in “communications” as defined in 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(2).

B. Palisades Engages in Harassment and Abusive Tactics

12. Within the last year, Palisades contacted Plaintiff in an attempt to collect the Debt.

13. The Debt was allegedly incurred by “Alan Cooper” (the “Debtor”), who Plaintiff does not know.

14. Palisades employed automated dialers with prerecorded messages to place calls to Plaintiff in an attempt to collect the Debt.

15. Each time, such prerecorded message stated that the call was an attempt to collect the Debt and provided a call back number.

16. Each time Plaintiff called the number provided in the prerecorded message in an attempt to stop Palisades from placing these repeated calls to Plaintiff's telephone, however Plaintiff was only able to reach a recording advising Plaintiff that she won a complementary trip to Bahamas and never live representative who would take Plaintiff's number off the call list.

17. Despite Plaintiff's numerous attempts to get her number removed from Palisades' system, Plaintiff continued receiving collection calls multiple times per week from successive weeks. This caused Plaintiff to feel oppressed and frustrated.

C. Plaintiff Suffered Actual Damages

18. The Plaintiff has suffered and continues to suffer actual damages as a result of the Defendants' unlawful conduct.

19. As a direct consequence of the Defendants' acts, practices and conduct, the Plaintiff suffered and continues to suffer from humiliation, anger, anxiety, emotional distress, fear, frustration and embarrassment.

20. The Defendants' conduct was so outrageous in character, and so extreme in degree, as to go beyond all possible bounds of decency, and to be regarded as atrocious, and utterly intolerable in a civilized community.

COUNT I

VIOLATIONS OF THE FAIR DEBT COLLECTION PRACTICES ACT
15 U.S.C. § 1692, et seq.

21. The Plaintiff incorporates by reference all of the above paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully stated herein.

22. The Defendants' conduct violated 15 U.S.C. § 1692d in that Defendants engaged in behavior the natural consequence of which was to harass, oppress, or abuse the Plaintiff in connection with the collection of a debt.

23. The Defendants' conduct violated 15 U.S.C. § 1692d(5) in that Defendants caused a phone to ring repeatedly and engaged the Plaintiff in telephone conversations, with the intent to annoy and harass.

24. The Defendants' conduct violated 15 U.S.C. § 1692f in that Defendants used unfair and unconscionable means to collect a debt.

25. The foregoing acts and omissions of the Defendants constitute numerous and multiple violations of the FDCPA, including every one of the above-cited provisions.

26. The Plaintiff is entitled to damages as a result of Defendants' violations.

COUNT II

INVASION OF PRIVACY BY INTRUSION UPON SECLUSION

27. The Plaintiff incorporates by reference all of the above paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully stated herein.

28. The Restatement of Torts, Second, § 652(b) ascribes liability for intrusion upon seclusion where one individual, "intentionally intrudes...upon the solitude or seclusion of another, or his private affairs or concerns," and further states that "[said individual] is subject to liability to the other for invasion of privacy, if the intrusion would be highly offensive to a reasonable person.”

29. New Jersey further recognizes Plaintiff’s right to be free from invasions of privacy. Thus, the Defendant violated New Jersey state law.

30. The Defendants’ telephone calls to the Plaintiff were so persistent and repeated with such frequency as to be considered, “hounding [the Plaintiff],” and “a substantial burden to [his] existence,” amounting to an invasion of privacy as defined by the Restatement of Torts, Second, § 652(b).

31. The Defendants’ conduct of engaging in the foregoing illegal collection activities resulted in multiple invasions of privacy that would be considered highly offensive to a reasonable person.

32. As a result of the intrusions and invasions enumerated above, the Plaintiff is entitled to actual damages from the Defendants in an amount to be determined at trial.

33. All acts of the Defendants and their agents were committed with malice, intent, wantonness, and recklessness, and as such, the Plaintiff is entitled to punitive damages from the Defendants.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff prays that judgment be entered against the Defendants:

1. Actual damages including, but not limited to, the emotional distress the Plaintiff has suffered (and continues to suffer) as a result of the intentional, reckless, and/or negligent FDCPA violations and intentional, reckless, and/or negligent invasions of privacy pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1692k(a)(1);
2. Statutory damages of $1,000.00 pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1692k(a)(2)(A);

3. Costs of litigation and reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 15 U.S.C.
§ 1692k(a)(3);
4. Liquidated damages;
5. Punitive damages; and
6. Such other and further relief that the Court may deem just and proper.
